Wondering How Your County Board Can Help? Let's Talk About It

Join Bradley Wyner in a conversation with panelists from county boards of DD and families in Ohio as they share:

- How county boards support teens and young adults with disabilities
- Who to contact for services before high school graduation and beyond
- Ways to ease the transition into adulthood
- Lifespan planning and realistic expectations for families
- Strategies for navigating challenges

Bradley Wyner, Director of Education at Milestones Autism Resources, specializes in supporting individuals with autism, intellectual and developmental disabilities, and complex needs. He emphasizes person-centered, trauma-informed approaches and is particularly focused on the intersection of trauma and autism. Bradley presents on behavior support, person-centered thinking, and practical strategies for direct support staff. He is certified in promoting mental wellness for people with disabilities.

Booster sessions offer valuable insights into moving to adult life for families with youth who have disabilities. Cost: Free
